

Martinsburg BERKELEY COUNTY West Virginia

Tourism Research

If you are looking for a place that has it all,
look no further than Martinsburg, Berkeley County,
West Virginia!

- Rich in History
- Agri-Tourism
- Family Friendly / Parks & Recreation
- Thriving Downtown Mainstreet
- Abundant in Accommodations

Rich in History

From the American Revolution, the Civil War, the Industrial Era to today, Martinsburg, Berkeley County is rich in architectural and cultural history.

A few of our historical attractions:

- B & O Railroad visit: <http://martinsburgroundhouse.com/>
- Adam Stephen's Home visit: <http://www.orgsites.com/wv/adam-stephen/>
- Belle Boyd House visit: <https://www.bchs.org/belle-boyd-house.html>
- Washington Heritage Trail: <http://washingtonheritagetrail.com/>

Agritourism

noun ag·ri·tour·ism \ ,a-gri-'tuır-,i-zəm \

: the practice of touring agricultural areas to see farms and often to participate in farm activities :

Throughout Berkeley County, West Virginia, many farms open their gates to locals and visitors alike to see daily life of working farm. Some operate seasonally or year round with store front markets carrying local goods or set up as a vendor during our Martinsburg Farmer's Market!

Our Community supports local!

Family Friendly / Parks & Recreation

Families love our community for it's local events in the Martinsburg downtown and throughout Berkeley County.

Here are some of our most popular held during the year:

Chocolate Festival and Book Faire held each Spring visit:

<http://www.mainstreetmartinsburg.com/chocolate-fest-book-faire/>

Mountain State Apple Harvest Festival held each fall visit: <http://www.msahf.com/>

Friday's at Five (Summer) – music on the Downtown Square

<http://www.mainstreetmartinsburg.com/fridays-at-five/>

Hometown Christmas (Fall-Winter) visit:

<http://www.mainstreetmartinsburg.com/christmas-tree-lighting/>

Outdoor Berkeley

With 322 square miles in Berkeley County, there is a lot of open space to enjoy the outdoors. Hiking Fishing, walking or biking, our beautiful county has much to explore.

Berkeley County Parks and Recreation visit: <http://www.mbcparcs-rec.org/>

Thriving Downtown

Stroll downtown to visit our many shops and local businesses, library, art galley or the many restaurants, diners and cafes.

Many of our historic downtown buildings are being transformed and revitalized into culinary destination spots for foodies. Here are a few:

Boyd's Steakhouse: http://www.boydsteakhouse.com/wp-content/uploads/2016/09/boyds_menu.pdf

Brix 27: <http://brix27.com/>

McFarland House: <https://www.historicmcfarlandhouse.com/>

Peppermill:

http://www.thepeppermillmartinsburgwv.com/?gclid=Cj0KCQjwZzWBRD2ARIsAIPenY0wRyPxx9PYvuzYAcT5AtOGQ7wC6iv1YDeVyNgUaWNIqcv1TKbliJkaAlijEALw_wcB

Abundant in Accommodations

Whether planning a short visit or an extended stay, Martinsburg, Berkeley County, West Virginia has accommodations for all!

- 20+ Hotels and Motels in the County
- B & B's, Cabins & Golf Resort
- Camping
- Lodges and Farm Cottages
- Visit <http://www.travelwv.com/stay-1/> for more information

Sources:

Martinsburg, Berkeley County Convention and Visitors Bureau <http://www.travelwv.com/>

Main Street Martinsburg <http://www.mainstreetmartinsburg.com/>

West Virginia Department of Tourism <https://wvtourism.com/>

To download a travel guide:

https://static1.squarespace.com/static/57acc3af9de4bb9bae553232/t/57b5dda6579fb32ee5e0206b/1471536563012/MCVB_DestinationGuide+2016.pdf

