Berkeley County Development Authority Welcomes Jennifer Smith as Economic Development Coordinator

Martinsburg, WV, – The Executive Director of the Berkeley County Development Authority, Sandy Hamilton, is pleased to announce that Jennifer Smith joins the organization as Economic Development Coordinator, effective July 22, 2019.

“I am truly looking forward to being a part of an established organization to help promote growth in all aspects of Berkeley County” Smith says. “My proven ability to establish long lasting relationships with local businesses will be continued in this position and I cannot wait to contribute to my community in this area.”

Smith brings more than 12 years of senior administrative experience from the manufacturing sector as well as a strong accounting background. Originally from Charles Town, WV, Smith currently resides in Berkeley County, which she has called home for more than 8 years. Smith is a graduate of Shepherd University with a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration. Her interests include anything sports related and enjoying the outdoors.

As Economic Development Coordinator, Smith will support the Executive Director and will assist existing businesses, according to their needs. She can be contacted in person at the local office at 300 Foxcroft Avenue, Suite #201, Martinsburg, West Virginia 25401, by email at jsmith@developmentauthority.com, or by phone at 304-267-4144, beginning July 22nd.

Berkeley County Development Authority is an Equal Opportunity Employer
